Sustaining Association Membership Application

A construction industry-related professional association, society, institute, or foundation can influence the educational experience of future construction leaders by becoming a Sustaining Association Member of the ACCE. Sustaining Association Members are able to influence the educational experience of future construction leaders through their representatives' participation on ACCE Board of Trustees and to network with other industry members and academic leaders to promote quality construction education.

- Sustaining Association Members shall appoint one representative to serve on the Board of Trustees. This representative shall have authority to act for the association in all matters relating to ACCE. The representative preferably should be an industry practitioner or a construction educator.
- Sustaining Association Member representatives may participate as members of the Educator or Industry Caucus and may be appointed to ACCE committees.
- Logos for Sustaining Association Members will be prominently displayed on ACCE correspondence and website. Also, a display table at each of the ACCE Annual and Midyear Meetings will be provided for the Sustaining Association Member.

Annual fee for Sustaining Association Membership level is $6,000 per year, which includes registration for one representative at both Annual and Midyear meetings.

Believing in the goals and objectives of the American Council for Construction Education, we apply to become a Sustaining Association Member.
